Ex Deputy Head Teacher & Ex Head Teacher

Christine and I retired from teaching in 2010. I was a deputy head teacher and Christine was a head teacher, both in the primary school sector. We had almost a year where we travelled and recharged our batteries. We then decided we needed a new challenge and if possible a change of direction in our lives. Kleeneze has certainly changed our lifestyle and given us a new lease of life. We have enjoyed meeting new people both as fellow distributors and our ever-growing customer base. After 22 weeks in our new business venture we are increasing our income substantially each period, and have already reached some of the targets that we have set OURSELVES! The more time and effort we put in, the bigger the rewards. Best of all, both Christine and I enjoy what we are doing and we are having fun in our work. ( I wonder how many people can say that? ) If you are considering a change of direction, give Kleeneze a go. What have you got to lose?
Good luck, Alan and Christine
