

MUSMOO BARTON

MY STORY

I joined Kleeneze after responding to an advert in my local newspaper, I was looking for something that I could do in my own hours, have my own money and without the stress of working for a demanding boss. I am ex- Social worker.

Below the first cheque represents my average income for a 4 week period, which was just simply delivering & collecting catalogues working spare-time flexible hours. This was simple to do and I continued to earn this every month over the last 3 years.

This last few months I have decided to build-up my team and retail & increase my income as my accountant husband was made redundant & suffers ill health. So now I've started to earn more, started to build a team & made some good friends in the process!

What do you want? - Why not start to achieve it now!
